

St. John's Heritage Road Rally East Perry County, MO October 27, 2024

Join us for Fun, Food, and Fellowship!

Make plans on Sunday, October 27, to celebrate our St. John's 175th Anniversary on our Heritage Road Rally in commemoration of the 1839 Saxon Immigration to East Perry County, MO. We plan to meet at 1:30 and depart from St. John's at 1:45/2:00 p.m. The rally ends around 5:30 with the last stop at the Saxony Hills Brewery in Altenburg for a salad and pizza buffet (including tea/lemonade/water) where you can relax and listen to musical entertainment.

Make Reservations

To cover the stop at the Winery and the Meal at the Brewery plus treats and prizes, the participation cost will be $30.00 per person. Make checks payable to St. John Lutheran Church – Road Rally.

PAYMENT OPTIONS (by October 19):

- Drop off your reservation (check or cash) at the church office (618-826-3545)
- Or turn in your reservation fee to Donna Young or Brenda Owen. We need enough lead time to let the Saxony Hills Brewery know an approximate number of how many will be attending the buffet.
- Or you can email or text Donna to reserve your spot at donna.young744@gmail.com or 618-615-1218 pay the day of the rally.

Highlights of the Heritage Run include stops at:

- Eggers And Company General Store Bed and Breakfast in Farrar
- Hemman Winery/Presbyterian Church. Music at Hemman's will be Ombres (from Chester area).
- Saxon Lutheran Memorial in Frohna
- Candy and Curiosities, pick up your old-fashioned candy treat at this shop in Altenburg (which has a connection to St. John's)
- Lutheran Heritage Center Museum in Altenburg
- 1839 landing site of the immigrants in Wittenberg.
- Saxony Hills Brewery – supper buffet and music by Quarantine Band
